

More on President Saunders' Legal Woes

“... Kasieta said UW System’s audit — conducted on the credit card Ross was allowed to use for small business related items at the cost of the university — subjected Ross to racial discrimination.

Kasieta pointed to flaws in the audit from 2006 and said a sign of discrimination was that only black deans at UW-Whitewater were audited.

He added another indication of racial bias in the audit was a comment made by one of the auditors, who said ‘if the black deans were all honest like Michael Jordan,’ there would be no need for audits....”. The Badger Herald