

Put Joe Bailey on a Plane

The recent release of University of Wisconsin – Whitewater documents indicate that both Martha Saunders, then UWW Chancellor, and her husband Joe Bailey were travelling by air on the State of Wisconsin's dime. As Saunders' UWW credit card statement indicates, Saunders and Bailey spent over $1,000 on air travel between Milwaukee and Atlanta during 18-Nov through 21-Nov of 2006. This sum doesn't include another mysterious charge to Saunders for air travel from Atlanta on 26-Nov of that same year.

The ticket dates, from 18-Nov through 26-Nov, occur near the 2006 Thanksgiving holiday. The couple reportedly owns property along the Florida Gulf Coast. Could these travel expenses represent personal travel to the couple's beachside home for a nice, warm Thanksgiving break? It gets really cold in Whitewater. It certainly seems possible. Perhaps future reports will shed more light on this situation.
