

Since you asked, Martha

Fall Convocation Today

---

September 24, 2008 9:39 AM | Permalink

Please join me at 3:30 p.m. today for the Fall Convocation on the Hattiesburg campus in Bennett Auditorium. There will be entertainment, refreshments, and a brief President's Address. What more fun could you hope to have on a fine fall afternoon?

What more fun could you hope to have on a fine fall afternoon? Since you asked how about some real information on important issues, and not just trite societal pap? Can you ever put down your pompons and discuss issues or inform your constituents? How are the searches for three deans progressing? How many academic programs do you intend to phase-out? Was there any major hurricane damage? What do you think of Fedora's job performance? Just curious.

Since we have spent an absurd amount of money on technology, could you simply email everyone your address from now on? What about streaming video or a podcast? Wouldn't that be more customer friendly?

By the way: does it feel like fall to you?